DESCRIPTION OF HISTORY AND PHILOSOPHY:

"In order to realize my longtime dream of becoming a commercial distiller, I had to 'ransom' my ass to the bank, my comfort to my friends' couches, my sanity to the system, my working hours to the distillery, and my free time to paperwork." Tad Seestedt

Ransom Spirits is a one man, artisanal distillery dedicated to producing premium spirits. Founded in 1997 by Tad Seestedt, it is located on a forty-acre farm outside of the small town of Sheridan, Oregon. All bottlings begin with superior, naturally farmed organic ingredients, and are distilled in a copper alambic pot still. Meticulous attention to fermentation is coupled with obsessive distillation technique in order to bring the highest quality possible to your glass. Ransom's Old Tom Gin is a historically accurate revival of the predominant gin in fashion during the mid 1800's and the golden age of American cocktails. The recipe was developed in collaboration with historian, author and mixologist extraordinaire David Wondrich.
